

held an inactive medical license. Dr. MacMurray herein affirms that he had no intention of violating Maine law by providing counseling services to patients from July 1, 1988 and thereafter; however, he acknowledges that he did provide counseling services to numerous patients after July 1, 1988, and requested payment for these services from insurance companies and others representing himself as a physician licensed in this state. Dr. MacMurray now acknowledges that by doing so, he violated the Board of Registration in Medicine's licensing laws.

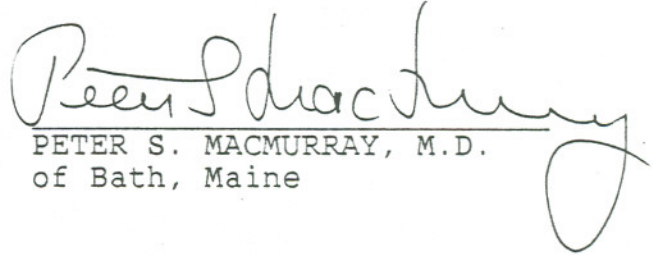

By retiring, Dr. MacMurray affirms that he shall not prescribe or dispense controlled substances or any other prescription medication to any person, including members of his immediate family or himself. He shall surrender to the DEA all licenses and registrations to prescribe or dispense controlled substances, and shall destroy all prescription pads and waste all prescription drugs in his possession, other than those which have been lawfully prescribed for him by a physician.

Finally, Dr. MacMurray affirms that he shall not seek renewal of his license by the Board of Registration in Medicine or the issuance or renewal of a medical license by any other jurisdiction.

Dr. MacMurray executes this Affidavit and Consent Agreement of his own free will, and he has been advised that he has the right to seek the advice of legal counsel.
